

Library Card Design Contest - Kids

Contest Details

Calling all kid artists ages 5-12! Have you always wanted to design a library card? What things would you like to see on a Clark County Public Library card just for kids? Well here's your chance to try your hand at coming up with a catchy, cool, clever and creative image for the library. Let your imagination soar – the possibilities are endless.

Contest rules and entry forms will be available online (ccploho.org) and at any Clark County Public Library location.

Prizes will be awarded. The top design winner may be used on a future Clark County Public Library Children's Card.

Check-out the guidelines below and then let the creating begin!

Guidelines – Contest will run from Monday, January 14th – Sunday, February 17th, 2019 (entries that are mailed in must be postmarked by Saturday, February 16th, 2019)
